

During the COVID-19 pandemic, we successfully carried out the full renovation of 300 guest rooms at the Marco Polo Prince Hotel. Despite the challenges posed by supply chain disruptions and stringent health and safety protocols, our team delivered the project on time and to a high standard. The scope included comprehensive interior upgrades to the rooms and common areas. Careful planning was crucial to minimize impact on ongoing operations of the hotel and the conjunction shopping mall.

