

Internally, we completed a full fit-out of the mall's retail, communal and recreational areas, including flooring, lighting, ceilings, mechanical and electrical systems, landscaping and other key interior elements.

The successful delivery of this high-profile project highlights our expertise in executing large-scale commercial renovations with precision, quality, and efficiency.

