

This 2,400 sq. ft. residential renovation was designed to accommodate a family of four along with live-in helpers.

The project focused on creating a comfortable, functional, and modern living space, with thoughtful layouts and quality finishes to suit the needs of daily family life.

